LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Nov. 19.—(BUP)—The Arab states unveiled their minority blueprint for an independent Arab — controlled Palestine today with a warning that the United Nations would have to impose "rule by force" on the Arab world if it partitions the Holy Land.

The Arab plan was presented to the 57-nation Palestine committee of the UN general assembly in advance of the completed Russo-American plan for the Jewish Palestine into Arab and Jewish states under supervision of a United Nations commission.

Worked out in private by the UN's six Arab states and the United Nations of Pakistan, the Arab blueprint demanded:

1. Motivation of Great Britain's Palestine mandate and withdrawal of all British forces within one year.
2. Recognition of Palestine as a united independent state.
3. Stoppage of all immigration of Jews to the Holy Land.
4. An appeal to the International Court of Justice on the legality of the UN General Assembly's right to partition the Holy Land.

MONTREAL, Nov. 19.—(CP)—Two bandits are still at large and a third is in hospital today following last night's daring holdup of the swank Chez Ernest cafe on downtown Bruneau street, where, before midnight last night, when two customers were wounded and a third injured.

Frank McCormick, prominent Montrealer, wounded by the bandits, was reported by hospital officials to be improved. Last night the 42-year-old father of two, who was reported "in a dying state" but early today he and his condition "good."

McCormick and Graham Rutherford, 29-year-old son of the president of Rutherford Lumber Ltd., were both shot as they tried to resist the two gunmen. A third member of the group waited outside.

The bandits' rescue operation is reported as "favorable" this morning but he is thought to have suffered a fractured skull when he was knocked cold by a bottle and with one of his two guns when a crowd of waiters and patrons of the cafe, who had gathered outside, had fired the cash register of more than $500. Rutherford was not seriously hurt.

Begin Rescue Stranded Seamen

HALIFAX, Nov. 19.—(CP)—The British freighter Empire MacCallum reported today that she had started taking aboard survivors of the freighter Langsmeer, who had been marooned on lonely Scaled Island, off the northern tip of Newfoundland, since their ship ran aground Saturday.

Search and rescue division of the RCMP reported that a message received from the MacCallum at 10:35 a.m. said merely: "Have started rescue operations."

The MacCallum swerved from her course to Montreal yesterday to go to the aid of the stranded sailors of the 4,900-ton British freighter, which piled aground and broke in two in an early morning storm Saturday.

One of these specified that the "aid shall not imply any obligation to give assistance to any of the countries mentioned and shall imply no guarantee the availability of any specific commodities."

Socialist Leader

Blum to Head French Govt.

By Joseph W. Grigg
 PARIS, Nov. 19.—(BUP)—Leon Blum, veteran Socialist leader, was reported today to have accepted a bid to head a new government to replace that of Paul Ramadier, which tottered on the brink of collapse under a Communist threat of a general strike throughout France.

"BLUM ALREADY has been asked to head a new government and has accepted," Guy Mollet, secretary-general of the Socialist party, said.

Mollet predicted that Blum would be named "probably within 48 hours" to lead a new middle-of-the-road government.

The report of the government's survival came as the Communist leadership of French labor started agitation for a general strike. Already a wave of crippling strikes had broken out in the number of the industrial class.

BLUM Speculation had been rampant for days that Ramadier's cabinet could be ousted, the mounting pressure of the industrial class.

MOLLET'S STATEMENT at a luncheon of the Anglo-American Press Association was the first semi-official confirmation of the impending shakeup.

Mollet said the proposed government

On Eve of Marriage to Philip

Social Whirl Leaves Princess Weary but Excited, Happy Girl

By Robert Musel
 LONDON, Nov. 19.—(BUP)—Princess Elizabeth, as excited as any girl on the eve of her marriage, dragged herself out of bed today after another late party and a few hours' sleep to see her completed wedding dress.

THERE WERE 120 GUESTS at tonight's party given by the king and queen in honor of Elizabeth and Philip Mountbatten. The royally happy couple was congratulated by Winston Churchill, Prime Minister Clement Attlee and scores of royalty and dignitaries.

A friend who spoke to her early this morning as the last distinguished guest was leaving Buckingham Palace, quoted her as saying she was "very tired" and could not possibly keep any engagements tomorrow.

But while she slept, a small green van, guarded by the staff of Designer Norman Hartnell, arrived at the palace with her wedding dress.

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau
 OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Canadian government losses of revenue by the new import prohibitions and restrictions may run as high as $150 million in the calendar year, 1948, plus another $30 million loss on the reduced taxes on electric power, sugar, coffee and tea.

WHAT THIS MEANS in effect is that Canadians may not reasonably expect any further income and corporation tax reductions during 1948, other than those which took effect on July 1, last.

What the government will do about this is on the lap of the gods—the finance experts will have more knowledge of exactly how the import prohibitions and restrictions affect 1948 revenue by the time the new budget is presented to the House next week. But the outlook at the moment is that the prospective revenue losses are so great that no more tax cuts may be expected until Canada's trade with the U.S. is in better balance.

Moreover, heavy taxes in themselves act as a check on buying expensive imported goods. The dollar imports, the entire objective of the new trade restrictions is to protect the new national policy.

Unfortunately for government financing, the customs and excise duties revenue was so extraordinary

Austerity Program Said "Not Too Bad"

Comment on the federal government's dollar-saving "austerity" program is studded with many approval from some labor and political leaders and new demands by the CCF for restrictions of price controls.

And all down the line there is increasing concern over the price, price decreases and prices that have been in effect since the C. Bruce Hill, St. Catharines, Ont., president of the Canadian Automobile Association, said the new trade treaties are "a step in the right direction toward the objective of stabilizing world trade."

John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, said in Brandon, Man. "It is gratifying to know the government has made its decision to save the nation has been living beyond its means."

Austerity Program Said "Not Too Bad"

The government "after a much-too-long delay" had announced a "long and bewildering and disorienting program."

The Dominion's two top labor leaders, J. H. Ross, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, and A. B. Mosher, president of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, said the program had its merits.

But the two, especially Mosher, said Mr. Bennett "will probably be successful in his efforts to save the government."

Said Mr. Mosher: " . . . On the face it doesn't seem to be too bad."

Expect Bitter Attack On Austerity Plans

By Chester Bloom

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—Opposition parties will without doubt make a bitter attack in the December session on the federal government for the sudden opening of its austerity campaign of restricting imports with little advance warning.

THE ONLY REASONS are given in the government's statement that it is unofficial for this delayed action is that the Canadian long-range international trade agreements were under discussion at Geneva all summer long. If the Canadian import restriction plan had been brought before the government in the summer, the federal government contends it would have had a most serious effect on the Geneva discussion. In fact it is argued, the Canadian plan actually might have torpedoed the Geneva agreement.

It is undeniable that the government long had warning of the approaching crisis of varying U.S. exchange. This was first visible in the annual report made April 25, last, of the foreign exchange control board. At that time it was disclosed that the total Canadian holdings of U.S. dollars and gold had fallen to only $1,245,000,000. They had decreased in 1940 by more than one-fifth, $280,000,000 and the rate of decrease was rapidly gaining as well known to the board officials. Yet the government continuously minimized this situation until a special report last Saturday night by Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport, for the first time described the situation as a crisis.

IN THE INTERIM, Canadian banks of U.S. imports were the leaps and bounds, in later months running at the rate of two to three million dollars a year. By August, the press throughout Canada began calling public attention to this situation, warning of a crisis, but government ministers steadily continued to give out soothing interviews. It may be that the government was in fear of the Geneva situation. But opposition attacks are sure to point out that the government could have raised strong signals against the excessive buying and prepared the public mind for the approaching crisis without necessarily announcing plans for import restrictions in advance.

ONE CRITICISM will surely be that the government acted too hastily in raising the Canadian dollar back to par from its 10 per cent discount. The reason still given for that action is that it would have resulted in higher living costs in Canada by imposing the 10 per cent differential on the cost of imported goods. Against that, the government also argues that a ten per cent differential would have had little effect in

Royal Wedding

(Continued from Page 1) dress. She got up earlier than she had planned to see how it looked. The dress, because of its big party, Elizabeth got only four hours' sleep. That was about as much as she got. Last night—rather early today—after the most sumptuous ball since before the war.

FOUR KINGS and four queens were in the procession. It was a state ball in everything but name and drew the most lavish display of new fashions seen here in eight years. Some rooms in Buckingham Palace that had been closed since the first days of the war were opened and fires burned brightly the night.

King George VI may give his future son-in-law a title today. By birth, Philip is a Prince of Greece, but he relinquished that title and became plain Philip Mountbatten when he took out British citizenship last spring.

The Star predicted he would be made Duke of Edinburgh, a royal title vacant since 1900. The Evening News said he would be made Duke of Edinburgh or Duke of Kent. The latter is vacant since 1892. Philip can never be king.

To insure that the dress will be perfect condition for the wedding tomorrow, Designer Hartnell had an appointment at the palace this afternoon for a final fitting. After that, Princess Elizabeth will go to the St. James's Palace, where she will personally show her wedding presents to the visiting foreign royals.

AT DUSK, SHE and Philip will go to Westminster Abbey for a two-hour rehearsal of the wedding ceremony with the Archbishop of Canterbury and York, the Dean of Westminster and attending clergy and a full choir.

Philip, who is the Marquis of Milford Haven, will attend with the wedding ring, made of gold from Wales. By tradition, the gold for royal wedding rings comes from Wales. Elizabeth and Philip will spend about an hour on the most exacting part of the ceremony—the 100-yard walk from the great west door of Westminster to the altar.

Scotland Yard agents cordoned off the abbey as crowds gathered near the temples under the impression that the rehearsal would be final. After the rehearsal tonight, the abbey will be searched and sealed off until after the wedding.

THE WEATHER BUREAU predicted that tomorrow would be mild and cloudy with a strong possibility of rain. But it would take a cloudburst to cut down the million or so who would normally gather along the mile and a half route from Buckingham Palace to the abbey.

The hotel strike, which has discontinued some of the distinguished guests at the Savoy, spread today to the Berkeley and Claridge's hotels, where maintenance men walked out. Among wedding guests at Claridge's are King Michael and Queen Helen of Romania, Prince George and Princess Eugenia of Greece, the Duke of Alba and the former King and Queen of Yugoslavia.

The Labor government will ask parliament today to set up a select committee to consider what financial provisions should be made for the bride and bridegroom. In view of King George VI's announcement that he would support them for two years out of his savings.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS had been expecting it would have to pass a special bill to grant them about $250,000 a year. The select committee will decide when the country should take over the support of the royal couple and how much Commons should be asked to approve.

Clement Attlee, leader of the Labor party, Winston Churchill, leader of the Conservative party, and Clement Davies, leader of the Liberal party, will be among the 21 members of the committee. Another possibility they must consider is that there will be a royal heir to support within the period that the King supplies their living expenses.

Buckingham Palace sources denied a report in a London newspaper that radio messages from Moscow indicated Russian Foreign Minister Vlasov had M. Molotov would attend the wedding. He was not invited.

The London Gazette reported today that the King, replying to a message of congratulations from the clergymen of the Church of England, said: "Those who like the queen and myself have been given their married life, know what a bulwark domestic happiness is. We wish for our daughter and her husband no less happiness in their home life than has been our privilege to enjoy."

THE 500-POUND wedding cake arrived at Buckingham Palace during the morning with five men for protection and handling. That was three more men than it took to bring the wedding dress, which is supposed to be highly secret. Hefel and theatre reported a night life boom with champagne flowing more freely than in years. Some hotels marked the occasion with new dishes. The swank Grosvenor concert, La Blane de Voltaire A. La Mountbatten, which turned out to be chicken, and "La Poire de Comte, Princess Elizabeth"—pear dessert.

Madame Tussaud's was working reported Mountbatten had approved the placing of his image in its gallery of fame but had requested that it leave off the hair oil, "because I don't use it myself."

One thousand fire-fighters will be assigned to police around Westminster Abbey tomorrow.

The wedding ceremony will begin at 11:30 a.m. (MST) tomorrow. Mountbatten will arrive at the Post's Corner door of Westminster Abbey at 11:15 a.m. One minute later the King, Queen and Elizabeth will leave Buckingham Palace by coach. They will reach the abbey at 11:38 a.m.

At 11:39 a.m. the bridesmaids, on the arm of the King and with her bridesmaids in attendance, will proceed up the Abbey aisle.

Study Subventions

Alberta Coal May Find Markets in S. America

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—(CP)—The government will lend its efforts to increase domestic coal production in its drive to save American dollars. Restriction of production will be at a press conference here yesterday.

The coal subventions recommended by the Carroll commission and implemented by the government were based on the situation where Canadian producers had a protection of 50 cents a ton on anthracite and 75 cents a ton on bituminous from the United States. Under the new agreement, which came into effect on Jan. 1, anthracite will enter Canada free and the tariff on bituminous will be reduced to 50 cents.

In view of these changes the minister was asked whether it would be necessary to increase the subventions.

He replied that the government was wedded to the subvention policy with regard to coal and was determined that as much coal as possible should be produced in this country. The whole question would receive careful study.

In the case of Alberta coal more might be exported to South American countries through the Pacific port. This was the minister's statement.

Light, Gas Tax Already Off

Trade Agreements Said Gratifying

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Mr. Greville Smith, chairman of the executive committee of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that announcement of the Greville trade conference agreements "in which, we understand, barriers to international trade are eased," was "gratifying."

"While the restriction of imports from dollar areas would seem to be in direct opposition to this policy, and, in fact, some of the restrictions would appear harsh in their ultimate effect, we are assured that they are to be applied on a short-term basis in order to achieve a long-term objective."

"In the light of our present position in regard to the dollar shortage, and in the expectation that Canada will participate in the Marshall plan on a basis similar to that of the Hyde Park agreement, the shorter-term restrictions announced by the minister of finance may be a justifiable means to a desired end."

Winter Movement Of Grain Planned

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Officials of the Canadian Wheat Board from the head office in Winnipeg, and from branches in Vancouver and Calgary are meeting in Calgary for the next few days to discuss the winter movement of grain and wheat during the winter months, particularly in regard to the serious border shortage.

ATOMIC SHIPS
NEW DELHI.—(CP)—Possibility of ship, sailing the seas propelled by atomic energy within a year or two, was predicted recently by Dr. H. J. Bhabha, chairman of the Indian atomic energy board.

Bracken Reiterates Criticism of Policy

MORDEN, Man., Nov. 18.—(CP)—John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, has reiterated his criticism of the federal government's course in grain and wheat policy.

Livestock production, particularly in hogs, had been demoralized by the demoralized course grain while the Canadian wheat agreement had placed the entire burden of a contribution to British on farmers, he told a party meeting in this south-central Manitoba town last night.

Commenting on the dollar situation, he said action of the foreign exchange board was to be criticized as well for allowing us to export an extension of the migratory game bird shooting season, will be introduced by committee of the Calgary Fish and Game Association at the annual general meeting here Sunday.

Spirited Action Marks Opening Cage Games in Senior League

Ezinicki Is Put In the Clear By Campbell

By W. W. WHEATLEY
MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Wild Bill Ezinicki of Toronto Maple Leafs was exonerated by President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League today in the latter's report of his investigation into charges by New York Rangers that Ezinicki was deliberately rough in a body check which 11 days ago resulted in a slight concussion to Rangers' Edgar Laprade.

The NHL president's investigation followed receipt of a formal writ of protest against Ezinicki's play from Frank Boucher, manager-coach of New York Rangers after the Nov. 8 game between Leafs and Rangers in which Laprade was hurt.

MR. CAMPBELL summoned the referee and the linemen who worked the game, viewed motion pictures of the Nov. 8 play and then, early today, issued his verdict.

"The investigation shows there was no indication of a deliberate injury to opponents by Ezinicki as charged by Boucher," said Mr. Campbell.

"Reports of the officials show that the check by Ezinicki to Edgar Laprade was perfectly legal and not a charge. The injury to Laprade was not caused by Ezinicki's stick but by Laprade striking the ice as he fell."

THIS WAS the hard-hitting, always-rough Ezinicki put in the clear for his never-say-die type of play, particularly on the night of Nov. 8 when the injury to Laprade and Boucher's subsequent protest put the Winnipeg golfer hockey in the limelight as a so-called hard-man of the ice.

Intermediate B Loop To Have Eight Clubs
With seven clubs all set to go and prospects good for another preliminary season to launch a new intermediate "B" hockey league were taken at a meeting held here Tuesday night.

ICAF, Highlands, Western Commerce (Army), Eased, J. S. Saper, Paine, Cloverdale and Fire Department were represented at the meeting and indications were that at least an eight club will be entered.

FRED A. MORIE was elected president of the new organization. Peter Bower was named secretary.

Further meeting has been called for 8 p.m. next Friday at the USO building and additional teams desired to enter the league.

Men's senior cage league was assured of close competition from at least four of six entrants after two keenly-contested games last night.

Whip Canadians 14-10

A fast-acting group of EAC's turned on the heat for five overtime goals at the Edmonton arena last night, whipping a stubborn Canadian side 14-10 in a wide-open City Junior Hockey League fixture, which was studded with goals, tempo outbursts and fast-moving hockey right from the opening whistle.

McCLOSKEY's overtime tally which slid into the cage under Norm Kunkin's sprawled frame at the 4:42 mark, proved to be the winning marker. Jenks, who picked up three assists during the high-scoring game, helped on the play.

JACK BRADSHAW, with three goals, one of which tied the game at 9-9 and sent it into overtime, led the Canadians scoring attack. Don Haley and Gordon Dromosky each picked up two, while Doug McCloskey, John Harrison and Wally Lupul added one apiece.

As for the third stanza, after spotting EACs with a 7-4 lead in the first two periods, most of the 400 or so fans who witnessed the spirited affair appeared to be pulling for the underdogs. And their applause drew results, as the red shirts came running back to tie the count at 9-9 with five goals, while holding the EAC attackers to a total of two.

SIX CANADIANS and five EACs in the overtime period, when Haley players took part in a battle royal. Wally Lupul at the 59 second mark, but that was all for both. Gillie's youthful sextet as the EAC men scored five goals in less than five minutes.

McKee chalked up the first EAC overtime tally at the 5:30 mark, pushing the tie bellied Kunkin's assistants by Butler and Thomas.

McCLOSKEY from Jenks at 4:42; Schofield from May at 4:56; Little unassisted at 5:08 and Schofield again on Dickson's assist, closed out EACs big overtime drive.

Both contingents fought to a 2-2 tie in the "safety" firing period, but EAC's shot the thunder in the second, pushing five discs into the twine, while giving up only two. Canadians answered the winners' fire to two in the third, but then came the overtime period and it was curtains for the red shirts.

SIX CANADIANS and five EAC players took part in a battle royal which broke out after a pileup in front of Kunkin's cage. For their part in the short tussle McCloskey of Canadians and McKee of EACs, were given two-minute fighting penalties.

Representative at the organization meeting was as follows: ICAF (Canadian) 7:40 P.M. — EACs (Edmonton) 8:45 P.M. — EACs (Edmonton) 9:45 P.M. — EACs (Edmonton) 10:45 P.M. — EACs (Edmonton) 11:45 P.M. — Don Raleigh's Feat Establishes Record

MONTREAL, Nov. 19.—(CP)—A 21-year-old New York Ranger rookie, playing in only his fourth National Hockey League game since a brief tryout four years ago, has set up an all-time league record for speedy assists.

Don Raleigh, the rookie forward from Winnipeg, racked up three assists in one minute and 21 seconds on three first-period goals scored by Rangers Sunday in New York against Montreal Canadiens. Rangers won the game 6-2.

THE GOALS WERE scored by Rene Trudel at 3:35, Frank Edolts at 3:42 and again Trudel at 6:46. Publicist director Ken McKenzie of the NHL said last night it was a hopeless task to check every game from inception of the league, but perhaps the closest mark to Raleigh's in relation to speed, is found in a playoff game of March 25, 1932.

IN THAT GAME the old Montreal Maroons' club defeated Rangers 4-3 and set an all-time mark of three goals in exactly 24 seconds. Two players were credited with two assists each in this record outburst.

Dave Trotter, Hooley Smith and Babe Siebert rattled in the goals in the last minute of play. Jimmy Ward and Smith both assisted on the Trotter and Siebert goals. An assist went to Trotter on Smith's goal.

THIS SEASON Mark Raleigh's debut appearance with Rangers back in the 1934-35 season when he was only 17, Raleigh was tried out made brief appearances in 15 games.

In all the time he was credited with only two assists, one fewer than he made in less than a minute and a half last Sunday. He also had two goals for the 15 games.

Raleigh then left the Rangers to continue his studies at the University of Manitoba. Last winter he played in some 80 games with amateur teams in Winnipeg.

He was born June 27, 1920; is five feet, 10 inches, and weighs 150 pounds.

WILL WIN 'TROPHY' SAYS FRANK BOUCHER

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(CP)—Frank Boucher, coach and manager of New York Rangers, last night was "elated" by news from Montreal that his new rookie forward Don Raleigh had set a National Hockey League record for speedy assists.

"I'll go on from there," said Boucher. "I think he's going to win the Calder trophy this year as the league's outstanding rookie."

Raleigh obtained three assists in 81 seconds here Sunday as Rangers thrashed Montreal Canadiens 4-2.

Tie At Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(CP)—Washington Lions and St. Louis Flyers played to a 1-1 tie before 1,200 fans in an American Hockey League game here last night.

Centre Don Grossy's goal on a rebound with little more than a minute to play enabled Flyers to pull even with Lions.

Earlier in the third period Dan Porteous flipped the puck over the back of the Flyers net. It hit goalie Ike Highten in the back of the head and rebound into the cage.

Adanacs Lose Out On Olympic Trip

ANCON, Nov. 19.—(CP)—Olympic hopes of New Westminster Adanacs, this year's dominion lacrosse champions were dashed Tuesday when chairman Lyle Barr of Inter-lacrosse commission said the team would not make the much-publicized trip to England for the 1948 Olympic games.

It was announced early last night that winners of the 1947 Mann Cup finals automatically would be in line for a trip to London to play an exhibition game against the best England has to offer. Adanacs won the cup after playoffs with Minico Mountaineers.

Max McDonald, Adanacs' coach, commented that the team would be disappointed "after all the promises, the boys wanted the trip."

Canada Already Has Given Help

By CLYDE BLACKBURN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Canadian Ambassador Hume Wrong yesterday told a press conference he did not believe the state department nor anyone else expected Canada at this moment to say whether or not it would be possible to contribute to the United States European recovery program.

Answering insistent questions on this point, the ambassador said the fact that Canada had contributed $2,000,000 in credits for European recovery since the war ended should be proof of its willingness to help.

That sum from Canada, he said, is more than the population of the United States is 10 times that of Canada and its national income is 18 times greater, "amply demonstrates Canada's desire to help," Wrong said.

It indicated that for two years Canada had been carrying on a "Marshall Plan" of its own. Canada's policy had been to help European recovery and Monday night's speech by Finance Minister Abbott indicated it was still the policy.

The ambassador, assisted by Louis Hamilton of the Bank of Canada and the International Monetary Fund, met "but 30 correspondents to give an explanation of Monday's restrictions on imports and other measures to stop the outflow of American dollars from Canada."

He told the correspondents Canada had been financing the recovery of western Europe to a greater extent, in proportion to population and national income, than had the United States.

Vancouver Man To Higher Court

By CLYDE BLACKBURN

VANCOUVER, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Joseph J. Barbeck, 41, yesterday was committed for trial in a higher court on a charge of indecent assault when he appeared before Magistrate W. W. B. McInnes in Vancouver police court.

Magistrate McInnes said he was passing Barbeck on to a higher court because he considered the maximum sentence he could impose "inadequate" to the crime if proved.

Barbeck is alleged to have assaulted a girl 44 years old, Tracie, of a beating given him by the girl's father at the time of the alleged incident were apparent in court.

Protest Language Used by Judge

By CLYDE BLACKBURN

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Rev. J. Richmond Craig told the Ottawa Presbytery of the United Church of Canada yesterday that a statement by the church's social service and evangelism committee was sent to the minister of justice, protesting that Mr. Justice J. T. Thomson of the exchequer court of Canada had recently termed the evidence of a Presbyterian clergyman as "frivolous propaganda."

Mr. Craig, minister of St. James United church here, said the "time has come to tell the world that the protestant minister in Canada stands for something."

Mr. Craig said the occasion of the comment by Mr. Justice Thomson during an appeal on a tax disposition case in the exchequer court when an ordained minister of the Presbyterian church was giving testimony. Mr. Craig said he had read the report in a newspaper.

Had Short Life

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 18.—(AP)—The new General Motors automobile crashed on a test bed yesterday in suburban Chula Vista and was demolished. Pilot Herbert P. Ingemeyer was unhurt and the only other occupant, Lawrence Phillips, escaped with minor injuries. The plane had an automobile body with detachable wings.

reception but I'll just have to wait and see," she said in an interview at her hotel. She is going to take a chance like "million of others" to grab a sidewalk spot to see Thursday's wedding procession.

BETTY'S TRANS-CANADA Air Lines plane was forced by fog to land at Prestwick airport in Scotland instead of coming direct to London. However, the fog cleared sufficiently to enable it to complete the flight, arriving at London airport at 8 p.m.

The plane was delayed in Montreal and in Labrador before it had to be diverted to Prestwick.

The Winnipeg girl, whose ambition is to be a newspaper woman, said she received a "big kick" when she was met by reporters and cameramen at the airport.

She sent her gift when she heard that the Princess required stockings and enclosed with it a letter saying she is "just a Canadian school girl."

"I HAD TO GUESS the size but I decided to send her a pair because I have been an admirer of hers ever since I can remember."

She saw Trafalgar Square, Piccadilly Circus and other West End sights en route to her hotel from the airport and now she wants to go to the opera at Covent Garden.

Visit Westminster Abbey, see the crown jewels at the tower, and, of course, St. James's Palace. "There are so many places I want to see I've forgotten half of them."

She brought home her friends in Britain to forget her rain-soaked November fog and drizzle. "My brother Bruce packed for me and I guess he forgot it," she said.

The following is the first letter received from Betty White, written during her flight across the Atlantic. Her letters will appear from time to time in the EDMONTON BULLETIN—Editor.

Copyright 1947 by the Winnipeg Free Press and the Edmonton Bulletin. To all the gang:

I left Labrador and am comfortably sitting in a Trans-Atlantic North Star skyliner three hundred miles from Ireland. The sun has just risen and it makes the Atlantic look like a blue-stained glass window decorated with a few white clouds.

I MUST GO BACK and tell you everything that has happened since leaving Montreal. First of all our plane was eight hours late leaving and after one night's flying we had to return because the baggage compartment doors became loose.

At four o'clock the plane once more thundered off the runway and landed five hours later at Goose Bay. The radio transmitter was broken so we waited seven hours for repairs to be made. When we finally got out one engine wouldn't work so back we went to Goose Bay. Nine hours and buckets full of rain later I stepped into the eastbound skyliner. The only good thing I remember about our forced landing in Labrador is that I got several unusual stamps for my collection. It is not, but I slept for the first six hours of the trip but now I am wide awake and anxiously awaiting a glimpse of Ireland.

THE CAPTAIN of the skyliner is trying to get me to London in time for the reception so we did not try to make land but headed directly for Shannon and London. It will be too late for the reception, however, as we will not reach London until five o'clock.

Two downy roses on the seat beside me have helped to keep my morale from dissolving in a morass of self-pity at my disappointment. The plane is very smooth to ride and the speed is unbelievable considering the unusually strong head winds we have had to face. We have flown through several dense clouds, but most of the time we have flown above them.

There is a chance I may be able to return via the Azores, Bermuda and Boston. The captain has just taken me into the cockpit to see the crew at work. The wireless operator has just received a message saying that London visibility this afternoon is only 1,100 yards so the plane is now heading for Prestwick, Scotland, not Shannon.

WE WILL FLY OVER the northern tip of Ireland. Ireland has just been sighted. Below me are hundreds of geometrically shaped farms fitted together like pieces in a jig-saw puzzle and bordered by rows of green trees. It is indeed the Emerald Isle. I'll write again when I reach London.

Betty.

Communist Students

By CLYDE BLACKBURN

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Some of the brightest Canadian university students are turning to a Communist philosophy, Rev. E. M. Nichols, secretary of the Student Christian Movement at University of Toronto's Hart House yesterday told a joint meeting of Toronto Presbyteries of the United Church of Canada. He said he believed those students were "very likely to relate the terrible situation of the world today to their courses and their lives."

Others sought through the Student Christian movement to find the integration of religion and politics.

Representative Everett Dirksen (Rep., Ill.) told the house foreign affairs committee, which completed hearings on immediate foreign aid, that Czechoslovakia would be the victim of a "Communist squeeze" within four months unless the United States help Austria, Germany, France and Italy would fall next.

Dirksen, head of a house armed-services-appropriations group which visited Europe recently, said in a report submitted later that the Soviet Union is feverishly preparing for a military war and should be deprived of any American supplies that might help her program.

But Republicans launched on the house floor an offensive against the president's bid for authority to bring back rationing and wage control, if necessary, to keep prices from climbing. The White House, meantime, said it cut out of 80 letters received favoring the idea of rationing.

Mr. O'Donnell, senior counsel for the CNR in the inquiry, told the Board of Transport Commissioners there was "no reason why the people of Canada should support the shipper in his business."

Arguing for consideration of the national line's financial position in dealing with the railway application for general 30-per-cent rate increases, he was answering the claims of some provinces that CNR requirements should be disregarded because of that company's burdensome financial structure.

So far as the public was concerned, Mr. O'Donnell declared, the CNR was in no different position from the Canadian Pacific railway. It was entitled, with the other railways, to "just and reasonable" rates.

Shippers Should Bear Rail Costs

By CLYDE BLACKBURN

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—(CP)—Refusal to provide more revenue for the Canadian National railways on the basis of its requirements would be "imposing a tax on the Canadian people," a CNR spokesman contended yesterday at the national freight-rate inquiry.

Hugh O'Donnell, senior counsel for the CNR in the inquiry, told the Board of Transport Commissioners there was "no reason why the people of Canada should support the shipper in his business."

Children's Teeth Show Improvement

Condition of children's teeth is steadily improving, Dr. E. F. Swallow, medical inspector of schools, reported to a meeting of the School Board in the Civic Club Tuesday night.

The improvement, he stated, was noted last year and this year it is even better. He remarked, "It is noticeable not only in the younger grades but in all grades right up to and including the high school pupils."

Dr. Swallow said at present the dental staff is engaged in the physical examination of Grade Nine and medical inspections of those in Grade 11 and 12.

Tenders were approved from Luskerville and Hile Ltd. and Sun-Edison Co. for the addition to the Spruce Avenue school. Tenders from Luskerville and Hile Ltd. for the plumbing, heating and ventilating meant was $4,000, while the tender from Sun-Edison Co. was $2,800.

J. Booth fire marshal reported to the board that after a search of the school for fire hazards had been made, no fire hazards were found.

The Mountain Y.M.C.A. and Recreation Commission who are working in cooperation in the Mountain district have indicated the need for the use of the Mount school once a week. It was reported to the board. Hours for the use of the school would be from 4 to 6 p.m. It was agreed that the board had further opportunity to consider the question.

Chairman of the meeting was J. C. Macdonald.

Subsidize Milk For Children

Subsidization by senior governments of milk for children because of its health building qualities was suggested by Charles T. Barry, Leithbridge, president of the Alberta Provincial Milk and Inspected Cream Producers' Association, during the hearing Tuesday by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners of an application from the milk shippers in the Edmonton area to subsidize milk for children at a price increase in milk commensurate with the increased cost of production.

Mr. Barry said repeated requests have been made to senior governments to subsidize milk for children so that the health building food could be made available to families in the lower income brackets.

His suggestion of subsidization came when Mr. Marion Connors, representing the Canadian Association of Milk Producers, Alberta division, stated that milk price increase would decrease the supply to children in the lower income bracket.

Mr. Barry said that milk producers could not be expected to produce at less than cost, and in the present economic conditions, to increase the price to the producer, then governments should take steps to see that milk, a most health giving and perfect food, is available to all children.

During the afternoon sittings evidence was adduced concerning the cost of production of milk, cost of transport, and other factors.

Harry Tucker, president, Calgary United Milk Producers Association, said that the cost of production of milk is about 50¢ a quart, and that the current price is 40¢ a quart.

Dog Corners Alleged Thief

Corned under a bed by three women and a dog after he had broken into a home Tuesday night, Leonard Goltz, Edmonton has been taken into custody by city police and charged with housebreaking and theft.

Mrs. Hugh Steele, 10038 92 street, told police she returned home with her daughter and a neighbor, Mrs. E. Scott, about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. The daughter entered the house first and heard a noise indicating that someone was inside.

When police arrived they found the accused sitting on the side of the bed, near a pile of foot which the women said he had taken from his pockets.

The stolen articles included three watches, four lighters, a knife, flashlight, box of ammunition, two pairs of earrings, a cameo brooch and a jar of pens.

Goltz is alleged to have told police he gained entrance to the house by way of a bedroom window. Mrs. Steele had been away from home for about an hour.

A sentence of two years and six months imprisonment was imposed on Goltz when he appeared before Magistrate A. I. Miller in city police court Wednesday morning.

The accused's record showed that he had previously received jail terms on charges of burglary and shoplifting. He expressed a will to police that he be sent to Prince Albert where he might learn a trade.

Alberta Concerto Coming Over CBC

A broadcast of special interest to all Albertans will be heard over the CBC from 9:30 to 10:00 p.m. Thursday, when the Alberta Concerto, composed and played by a young Calgary pianist, Minnie Horck, will be presented. She will be accompanied by Les Concerts Symphoniques de Montreal.

Mrs. Horck received the suggestion to write this concerto from Dean E. C. Campbell, director of the Alberta travel bureau. Mrs. Campbell suggested that she give some thought to composing a concerto based on the Alberta scene, and at Mrs. Horck's request he wrote a 16 verse poem in which he drew an appropriate word picture.

At that time Mrs. Horck was in her early teens. Over 20 years have elapsed during which period she has continued her musical studies in New York. She had kept the idea in mind and just a few months ago completed the concerto.

The broadcast was originally scheduled for the Eastern network only, but as a result of the efforts of J. J. Bowles of Calgary, officials of the CBC, the IODE and other interested parties, release to the west was arranged.

They look like lipstick, but glide on onto your lips and all of a sudden your lips shine. Such smoothness—such vital, alive color—oil such beauty, and every minute of every hour your lips feel soft, happy and very well dressed.

Wearing a Lady Esther "LIPCOLOR," your lips will keep their full color-beauty through every minute of every hour, through dinner and all. Yes, they will, because they're dressed in concentrated, alive color that never, never deserts your lips in patches. They come in seven heavenly shades and we have them all.
